Participate In Blood Drive At Synagogue

We need you to help save a life! How? By taking an hour and donating a pint of blood. We all expect blood to be available to us if we need it, but only people can produce and supply blood for other people.

There is no danger or distress to the donor of blood. Anyone from the age of 17 to 66, in good health, and weighing a minimum of 110 pounds, can donate blood. Medical technology now provides the know-how to divide blood into five components so that a donation of one pint of blood may benefit five people.

Blood is very perishable. Red blood cells can be stored for 35 days, but white cells for only 24 hours. The only way to insure an adequate supply of blood is to be sure of a constant daily source of donors.

Sherr Institute Offers Two New Courses In March

In addition to the courses already underway in the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies, two new courses will be offered in the month of March, one on the Haggadah and the other on the patriarch Jacob.

Rabbi Wechsler will meet with members of Park Avenue Synagogue and their invited guests for four successive Tuesdays, beginning March 6 from 12 Noon to 1:40 P.M. for Lunch 'N' Study. Meeting midtown over brown bag lunches, each session is designed so as to end in time for participants to be back at their desks by 2 P.M.

A great classic of Jewish literature, the Passover Haggadah is one of the books most used by Jews, yet perhaps understood least. Since the first seder does not come until April 16 this year, this course can be a good opportunity to prepare for the seder with a new level of understanding.

Call the Synagogue Office one week before the first class to find out where it will be located.

In three sessions, March 14, 21, 28, Dr. Samuel C. Klagsbrun will put "Jacob On The Couch". Jacob is a controversial figure, a towering figure, one of the three "fathers"

Judge Renee R. Roth Speaks At Sisterhood Sabbath Service

Judge Renee R. Roth, Surrogate of New York County, will be the guest speaker at the Sisterhood Sabbath Service on Friday, March 30 at 8:30 P.M.

Judge Roth was elected to her present position in the last election. An articulate speaker, she conducted her campaign with style and intelligence. She is very well qualified for her position as Surrogate, receiving her A.B. degree from CCNY and her J.D. degree from Fordham Law School. She has been Adjunct Professor at the Fordham Law School for the past four years. She also served as Law Assistant and Referee in the Surrogate's Court in Kings County from 1969 to 1982 and was the author, from 1976 to 1982, of the monthly column, "Wills, Estates and Surrogate's Practice", in the New York Law Journal.

For the past ten years, Judge Roth has lectured extensively on Surrogate's Practice. She has been a guest speaker for UJA/Federation, Yeshiva University, Hadassah and the various Bar Associations in the metropolitan area. She is a trustee of the Brooklyn Law Library and from 1977-79 was the president of the City College Alumni Association.

An Oneg Shabbat follows the service.

Congressman Green Guest At Men's Club Sabbath Service

Congressman S. William (Bill) Green has accepted an invitation to address the congregation at the Men's Club Sabbath Service on Friday, March 23 at 8:30 P.M.

Two other events will also take place at the service: the Men's Club will honor those congregants who throughout the past year have supported, by their presence, the daily minyan and present a special banner to the congregation behind which the congregation can march in those citywide events which occur from time to time, such as the Salute to Israel Parade and Solidarity Sunday.

Congressman S. William Green

Congressman Green is our congressman, representing the 15th Congressional District which covers both the central and "East Side" of Manhattan. He entered Congress in February, 1978, defeating former Representative Bella Abzug in a bitter contest for the seat vacated by Mayor Ed Koch and once held by former Mayor John Lindsay. Green, a Republican, has been re-elected for three successive terms, despite the fact that the Republican enrollment of the district is 18%.

Green is an effective legislator with decid-

The Coming of Joy

It is said that with the advent of the Jewish month of Adar joy enters with it. The reason, of course, is that we celebrate Purim during this month. The instructions are clear — celebrate, be happy, sing, drink and dance on this festival. As a matter of fact we are told to partake of drink to the point where we cannot distinguish between “Blessed be Mordecai” and “Cursed be Haman.”

Why all these instructions about how to rejoice? Shouldn't joy be more spontaneous, unplanned, natural? Of course it should, but we who are acquainted with the vagaries of Jewish history, with its ups and downs, know that the scales were more often tipped in favor of tragedy. And lest we become a people who might drown in self-pity, pathos and darkness of spirit, our instructions on how to be happy are detailed and explicit. So it becomes a mitzvah to celebrate Purim with joy and ecstasy, to cast off — if only for the moment — fears and doubts, apprehension and concern and to join in song and noisy exuberance to celebrate yet another Jewish victory for survival.

This year we shall be in Israel for Purim, savoring the observance of a Jewish festival in the Jewish homeland. But while we shall be with our children and grandchildren in Jerusalem, part of us will be on 87th Street and our hearts will make the trip over land and sea to join all our friends at our beloved synagogue.

Have a joyous Purim!

— Judah Nadich

AUCTION! AUCTION!! Saturday, April 7

Going once, twice, three times — SOLD!
Lucky bidders will be thrilled to hear the sound of the auctioneer's gavel as they bid for truly spectacular merchandise and services at the annual Auction, sponsored by the Women's Evening Group, on Saturday, April 7, beginning at 7:30 P.M.

The Auctioneer will be Mr. William Doyle of Doyle Galleries, who will present to the assemblage an outstanding catalog of "lots".

The Auction will provide bidders with an excellent opportunity to purchase a variety of items. One of the most exciting comes from Joyce Kagan, a new member of the congregation and of the Women's Evening Group, who has obtained a fabulous fur coat, on consignment, from Reby Furs. [A mink coat is under discussion!] Another exciting item is the consultation offered by the noted New York interior designer, Ben Beckman, F.A.S.I.D., of Ben Beckman Associates, Inc. Mr. Beckman redesigned the Lemberg Auditorium and is a past president of the American Society of Interior Designers. He is a professor of Interior Design and is listed in Who's Who In America. Mr. Beckman will visit with the lucky bidder, offering professional suggestions regarding layout, color and lighting. Other items include: luggage from Wings; leather clothing from Luis Alvear; photographs by Joshua Hendon and Stanley Marcus; a food gift basket from Macy's; gloves by Fownes; a luxurious stay in the Doral Hotel in Miami; a gold watch from William Skolnik; dinners for two at many of New York's finest restaurants; a week in the Poconos; fantasy "evenings on the town"; and much, much more.

Congregants can still contribute items to the Auction. Please call the Chairperson Maxine Bender Dovore at 595-0614 evenings, or the Synagogue Office during the day, 369-2600, to arrange for the pickup of donations to the Auction. All contributions to the Auction are tax-deductible.

A light supper will be served after the Auction. A reception, at which wine and cheese will be served, before the Auction will give guests the opportunity to view the items to be offered.

Admission, which includes the supper, is $15 per person. A contribution of $20 entitles one to be a patron of the Auction and listing as such in the catalog. Successful bidders are expected to pay for merchandise by check or cash on the evening of the Auction, itself.

Look for your invitation in the mail. Invite your friends. Everyone is invited to have a good time at the Women's Evening Group Auction on April 7.

Cantor Lefkowitz Gives Recital At Merkin Hall

Congregants will have a rare opportunity to hear Cantor David Lefkowitz in a unique vocal recital at the Merkin Concert Hall at the Abraham Goodman House, 129 West 67 St., on Wednesday, March 28 at 8 P.M.

In a program offered by the Hebrew Arts School Heritage Concert Series, Cantor Lefkowitz in collaboration with pianist William Lewis will present musical masterpieces by some of the world's greatest composers. The program will include rarely heard arias from Mozart's "David the Penitent", Handel's "Samson", Vivaldi's "Triumphant Judith", Halevy's "La Juive" and Mehul's "Joseph". Also offered will be several Yiddish folk songs.

A special highlight of the concert will be the American premiere of David Nowakowsky's "Kol Nidre", an instrumental concert piece composed in Odessa, Russia in 1898. This work, discovered by Cantor Lefkowitz in the composer's vast manuscript archives recently loaned to Park Avenue Synagogue, will be performed by Cantor Lefkowitz, together with solo violinist Joyce Hamman and the Heritage Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of Yaacov Bergman.

For tickets and further information, please call 362-8060, or the Box Office, 362-8719.

Needs of Dual Career Parents Explored At P.A. Meeting

Parents Association invites the congregation and the community to a provocative program of Monday, March 12 at 8 P.M. The topic: Dual Career Parents. The discussion will be led by Dr. Martin V. Cohen, Clinical Director of Family Psychology Associates and Clinical Supervisor of the Marital Therapy Out Patient Clinic at New York Hospital.

This workshop promises to be a lively and enlightening event on an exceedingly topical phenomenon in our society.

There will be ample time for questions and answers. Refreshments will be served.

WANTED FOR PRINT!

Favorite recipes for publication in the Park Avenue Synagogue Kosher Cookbook. Submit as many recipes as you wish in all categories from hors d'oeuvres to desserts and mail to Carol Weber, Parents Association Cookbook Project, 50 East 87 St., New York, N.Y. 10128.

Monthly Shabbat Dinner Friday, March 9

The last Congregational Shabbat Dinner of this season will take place on Friday, March 9, following services which begin at 6:15 P.M.

Participating in the dinner will be the members of the Women's Evening Group and their families and friends.

These monthly Congregational Shabbat Dinners, which are held from October through March, have become exceedingly popular with the congregation. They have enabled our membership to meet together once a month, through the winter months, to enjoy the ruach (spirit) of the Sabbath while enjoying one another's company.

The congregation thanks the co-chairpersons of the project, Linda and Mel Matlins and their large and enthusiastic committee: Josephine Berger-Nadler, Miriam Brown, Herbert Feiweil, Paula Finnell, Frances Freedman, Herbert Frommer, Susan and Leon Heller, Bernard Katz, Abigail Kelman, Belle Klein, Ruth Rothseid, Linda Rudell, Syd Rothenberg, Nancy and Ray Treiger, and Miriam Wallerstein. They are all to be complimented for a job very well done!

There is still time to make your reservation(s) for the dinner on March 9. Return your reservation card, which you have received in the mail, with your check as soon as possible. And enjoy . . .

Men's Club Goes To Theater At 92nd St. Y March 28

The Men's Club invites the congregation to join them at a performance of the Sholom Aleichem classic "Hard To Be A Jew" on Wednesday evening, March 28.

The play, performed in English at the 92nd St. Y by the American Jewish Theater, has received excellent reviews. It is the story of two students in Czarist Russia — a Jew and a Gentile — who agree to exchange identities for one year and the resulting consequences of their agreement.

Seating is limited, so hurry to make your reservations. Cost per ticket is $15. Checks should be made out to Men's Club, Park Avenue Synagogue and mailed to Dr. Henry Simmons, 219 East 86 St., New York, N.Y. 10024.

Notes From The Library

Purim will be here soon and the Rothschild Library is exhibiting and making available for circulation Adult and Juvenile books on Purim. Come in, browse, and let your synagogue library help bring alive this happy holiday for you!

* * *

If you love books and wish to support your synagogue library, your contribution to the Rothschild Library Fund will be most appreciated.

The Library buys many Judaica books, and a contribution to the Library Fund can guarantee the placing of a nameplate in the front of a designated book which has been either purchased already or selected by the Librarian for future purchase. The nameplate can state the donor's name, as well as the name of the person or persons in whose honor or memory the donor may wish the book dedicated.

* * *

Parents waiting for their child(ren) to be dismissed from class may find waiting in the Library more pleasant and comfortable than waiting in the Wimpfheimer Hall these dark, cold winter evenings. Safety and security mandates dismissal of students by teachers in the Wimpfheimer Hall (the lobby) ONLY, however.

We Take Pride In:

Connie Cohen, whose show "Photographs of Greece and Sculpture" is on view at the Ward-Nasse Gallery in SoHo from March 10-29. She will give a "Dialogue With the Artist" at the Gallery on Tuesday, March 20 from 6-8:30 P.M.

Dr. Michael S. Kogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan B. Kogan, who was elected Chairman of the Department of Philosophy and Religion at Montclair State College.

Jewish Youth Theme Of Conference At P.A.S.

The 88th Annual Convention of the Federation of Jewish Women's Organizations will be held at Park Avenue Synagogue on Wednesday, April 4, beginning at 9:30 A.M.

The theme of this all-day conference is "Jewish Youth: Problems and Accomplishments". Provocative speakers and a musical program will highlight the day.

$36 covers the cost of the day which includes luncheon. There will be many door prizes.

All are welcome to attend. For more information, please call 661-8090.

Passover Fund Asks For Your Help

Every year members of our congregation make their contributions to the Passover Fund of the Park Avenue Synagogue in order to help needy Jews celebrate Passover. This year Jewish families in need have tripled in number and already hundreds of calls for assistance have been received by the Joint Passover Association. In addition to the families who have been assisted through the years, calls have been coming from people who are being forced to seek assistance for the first time — victims of unemployment and inflation.

The Passover Fund also participates in meeting the Passover requirements of thousands of Jews in hospitals, mental institutions and prisons throughout the state in addition to answering the Passover needs of our people in Israel, the Soviet Union and other parts of the world.

Traditionally, Passover has meant sharing with our needy brothers and sisters, making sure that those without the necessities for celebrating the holiday are cared for with dignity. Members of the Park Avenue Synagogue have, in the past, sent their generous contributions to the Passover Fund in care of the office of Rabbi Nadich. We ask that you do so again, now, remembering that additional needy families require our help.

Please send your check, made out to Park Avenue Synagogue, to Park Avenue Synagogue, Att. Passover Fund, 50 East 87th Street, New York, N.Y. 10128. Let your heart dictate the amount.

In his district, Green provides an "ombudsman" service to individuals, works with civic groups and local government officials to improve services to and in the city and holds periodic "Town Meetings". He also maintains a highly visible mobile office van.

The congregation and community are cordially invited to join the Men's Club at the service and at the Oneg Shabbat which follows.

Congratulations

The congregation offers a hearty Mazal Tov to:

Sisterhood Visits Seminary On Tuesday, April 11

Sisterhood is planning to spend the day at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America on Tuesday, April 11.

The women will meet at Park Avenue Synagogue at 10:30 A.M. and travel by taxi to the Seminary, which is located on Broadway at 122nd Street.

There they will be given a tour of the newly completed library complex, which was dedicated in December. A walking tour of the campus and lunch with the students will complete the visit.

For more information and to reserve your place, please call either Sylvia Fine, 744-7481 or Hanna Lytle, 595-1351.

Biblical World Explored At Mr. and Mrs. Club

"Re-Experiencing the Biblical World" — what an exciting prospect!

On Sunday, March 25 at 2:30 P.M. in Room 408, Professor Murray H. Lichtenstein will speak on just this subject.

This lecture is designed to reconstruct some of the historical, cultural and literary background of the Bible — its law and lore, prose and poetry and unique thought-world. Through the use of slides, reading of texts and discussion, the audience along with the Professor will try to recapture what every ancient Israelite knew or took for granted in hearing or reading the words of the Bible. The Bible can be, for us, a living statement rather than a silent book, a contemporary source of enlightenment rather than a puzzling antiquity.

Professor Lichtenstein received his doctorate in ancient Semitic languages and literature at Columbia University. He has taught at the State University of New York at Stony Brook, Barnard College and the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. He is now on the faculty of Hunter College in the department of Classical and Oriental Studies.

The Mr. and Mrs. Club, sponsors of the lecture, invite all congregants and friends to attend. A social hour will be part of this afternoon event.

Blood Drive

Each and every donation is as valuable as life itself. Yet the giving of blood is very simple. It is true that we are capable of saving lives when we donate blood.

Lewis Surrey is Chairman of the Blood Drive, which will be held at Park Avenue Synagogue through the cooperation of Club 87 and the New York Blood Services, a division of the Greater New York Blood Program. Although previously announced to take place in the synagogue on Sunday, March 11, the Blood Drive has been postponed until a date — to be announced later — this spring. ## Women & Finances Discussed At WEG Open Meeting

An intriguing panel discussion on Women & Finances will be held under the aegis of the Women's Evening Group on Monday, March 26 at 8 P.M.

The panelists, Linda Barbanel, MSW-CSW, is a psychotherapist; Sharon James is a financial advisor; and Carol Zimmer is a lawyer. Together these three women plan to discuss a wide range of problems and possibilities on issues which women traditionally have been made to feel were not for their consideration. "No more", say the three, "Money is not a dirty word and anyone can be a sound investor."

Come and learn more.

YIVO Collecting Photos On Russian Jewish Life

A sister institution located at 86th Street and Fifth Avenue, the YIVO Institute for Jewish Research, has begun a project to collect and catalog photographs and films which depict Jewish life in Russia and the Soviet Union.

Members of the Park Avenue Synagogue may have such photographs in their family papers, having inherited them from parents or grandparents. Any remaining photographs, albums, postcards, autobiographical materials and personal papers are not just family memoirs but the documents of an era. The photos may relate to all subjects, time periods and geographic locations, schools, theaters, celebrations, religious life, cemeteries, Jewish homes or landmarks.

Each contribution of such material will be acknowledged by a special letter. The person at YIVO to contact is the Project Director, Michael Gofman at 535-6700.

Sisterhood Luncheon At Seminary April 5

The annual Spring Luncheon of the Jewish Theological Seminary for Sisterhood will be a "Guardian of Torah Event" at the Seminary on Tuesday, April 5.

A minimum contribution of ten times Chai ($180) is necessary to attend this luncheon. Chairperson Sylvia Fine asks Benefactors to consider becoming Guardians, if at all possible. Benefactors will continue to receive the Hayei Olam pin in appreciation of their gifts.

For more information, please call Sylvia Fine, 744-7481 or Hanna Lytle, 595-1351.

Friends of P.S. 169 Seeks Volunteers

The Friends of P.S. 169 are seeking more volunteers to work with them in the school.

The organization has provided numerous and varied service to P.S. 169 for the more than 25 years of its existence and is now focusing on the needs of the school in two areas: recruiting volunteers to meet with children in school on a 1:1 basis and to raise money for the summer sleep-a-way camp program.

P.S. 169, The Robert F. Kennedy School, is located at 110 East 88 Street. It is a day treatment program for children with special needs. The students are 5 - 12 year old boys and girls who come from all over Manhattan and are largely from families with limited resources.

For more information on the Friends, please call Friends of P.S. 169 President, Connie Cohen, through the school at 348-6140.

"Money Talks" Discussed At Open Meeting Of YCL

Ms. Linda Barbanel will lead a discussion on "Money Talks: What Are The Hidden Messages?" at the next Open Meeting of the Young Couples League, Tuesday, March 6 at 8 P.M.

Money is used, or abused, when it is a symbol for security, power, or love. Ms. Barbanel will explore this behavior and how it affects relationships, when money becomes the chief means of communication.

Ms. Barbanel, MSW CSW, is a psychotherapist in private practice in Manhattan. She is a well-known speaker and expert, from the psychological point of view, on the various meanings of money in our society. She is a frequent guest on radio and television and has become a popular lecturer at business, professional, college and networking groups.

The Young Couples League invites the congregation to join them for this program. Coffee will be served.

Everyone Is Invited To Project Ezra's Party

Project Ezra is having a party to celebrate its tenth anniversary on Sunday, April first, from 2 - 5 P.M. at the Village Gate and everyone is invited to join in the fun.

The Village Gate is located on Bleeker Street, at the corner of Thompson, in Greenwich Village. The interior of the Village Gate will be decorated to recreate the look of the Lower East Side of a century ago, with glatt kosher food served from pushcarts.

Irving Howe, author of "World Of Our Fathers", will be the featured speaker of the afternoon. Paul Cowan, author of "An Orphan In History", will also be present. Entertainment will be provided by Kapelye, the Klezmer band made famous for its performance in the wedding scene in the movie "The Chosen", and by Jewish musical folklorist Isabelle Ganz.

A raffle will be held in conjunction with this fun event. Raffle tickets are now for sale in the Religious School Office (third floor) and the High School Office (fourth floor).

Proceeds from the party and the raffle benefit the work of Project Ezra, an independent, non-profit organization serving the Jewish elderly living on the Lower East Side.

Tickets can be obtained, at $40 per person, by calling the Project Ezra Office, 982-4142.

Support the work of Project Ezra. Buy a raffle, or two, or three. Attend the party. While you are having a good time you will be benefiting a most worthwhile organization.

Israeli Army Choir In Concert In New York March 10 - 11

Announcing the premiere American tour of the Israeli Army Choir and Orchestra, under the auspices of the Israel Ministry of Tourism and El Al Airlines! Two concerts will be given in New York at the Beacon Theater, Broadway at 74th Street: one on Saturday, March 10 at 9 P.M. and the other on Sunday, March 11 at 3 P.M.

The purpose of this tour is to illustrate yet another facet of Israeli life for the general public with the hope that these young and exuberant men will arouse enthusiasm and curiosity about Israel, while at the same time, bring the message Am Yisrael Chai to all Israel's friends abroad.
